LEAVING PARNELL.

The Harringtons Decide to Desert Ireland's Uncrowned King.

tugal's Financial Affairs-The Crare-

London, May 14.—What is left of the Parnellite organization in Ireland is to receive a fatal blow within the next few days. I am authoritively informed that the two Harrington brothers, Timothy and Edward, have decided to give in their adhesion to the Nationalist party. Timothy, a report says, will make the first move. The two brothers have been by all odds the most formidable of Parnell's friends, because they controlled the machinery of the old National League. Unless the Parnellite envoys in America hurry home they will find themselves without enough colleagues to fill comfortably the outside of a car on their return.

The announcement made yesterday that a prominent person who has hitherto been one of the warmest supporters of Mr. Parnell had decided to secede from the cause of the deposed Irish leader, would seem to be founded on fact. The National Press, the McCarthyite organ announces to-day that Mr.
E. Dwyer Gray, formerly member of Parliament for Dublin and the holder of half of the stock of the company owning the Freeman's Journal, the Epening Telegraph and the Morning News of Beliast, has seceded from the now very slender party which still calls Parnell its leader. Mr. Dwyer Gray is the son of the late Sir John Gray, formerly member of Parliament for Kilkenny. He was born in Dublin in 1855 and married Caroline Agness, daughter of Maj, and Mrs. Caroline Chisholm, known as "the Emigrants' Friend," in 1869. Mr. Dwyer
Gray was Lord Mayor of Dublin in 1880, High Sheriff in 1882 and chairman of the Dublin Mansion House Committee by which 200,000 was collected in 1880 for the relief of distress in Ireland.

DEATH FROM THE TERRIRLE NALADY IN GERMANT—BERLIN TOPICS.

BERLIN, May '44.—Despite all the efforts of the Government to stamp out the disease, trichinosis continues to exist in some parts of Germany. Six persons have recently died from the maiady in Meiningen and fourteen more are suffering from its attacks. There seems little doubt that the pork which caused the disease in these instances was of domestic prodoction, but the prevalence of the disease is made the basis of renewed condemnation of American pork. DEATH PROM THE TERRIPLE MALADY IN GER-guage compulsory in the Northwest Territories Legislature as such was intended to perpetuate race distinctions in the provinces. The objectionable preamble is omitted altogether as it proved a stumbling block to many who would otherwise have supported the measure. The school question is to be left entirely under the jurisdiction of the provincial government as it is proposed to give them full power to act in the matter. At present the Northwest act says there shall be separate schools whether the territories like it or not and the present bill proposes to award them greater latitude. Both the leaders in the House of Commons are indisposed. Sir John Macdonald did not attend the sitting of the House yesterday, and Hon. Mr. Laurier is still confined to his bed.

Canada is determined if possible to induce the Canadians now living in the States to return, and a large appropriation will be asked for at this session of Parliament to further that purpose.

MADRID, May 14.—There are many sensational rumors aften here in regard to Portuguese affairs. THE CZAREWITCH.

THE ASSASSIN'S BLOW DID NOT MAKE A SEEDIOUS WOUND.

St. Petersburg, May 14.—Official dispatches received here from Japan in regard to the condition of the Czarewitch announce that his physicians are satisfied with the progress toward recovery which he has made. The Mikado, the Princess of the Imperial family and the State dignitaries have paid several visits to the Czarewitch since he was wounded, and they will all accompany the Imperial traveler to Kobe, on the Bay of Hiogo, where he embarks on board a Russian war ship, which will convey him to Vladivostock.

Such news as has been received from Japan goes to condrim the belief that the attempt on the Higo of the Czarewitch, grew out of religious fanaticism, though whether it was intended as a Buddhist protest against the spread of propaganda of the Greek Church, or as a rebuke to the Prince for having omitted some rules of etiquestic in visiting the temple, is not known.

A MILLION MARKS MISSING.
Herr Wilmes, manager of a savings bank at Olpe, Prussia, died recently, deeply lamented by his fellow-townsmen, who regarded him as a model of integrity. So great was the confidence reposed in the banker that a majority of the depositors in his institution, allewed him to keep their books and adjust their accounts without supervision on their part. It has just been discovered in settling up the affairs of the deceased that nearly 1,000,000 marks belonging to the confiding depositors is missing.

BLAINE'S ILLNESS. Conflicting Reports Reach the Public as to His Condition.

cian To-Day-The Secretary Anxious

Secretary Blaine is in no condition to take part in business consultations. He receives no visitors and the State Department officials have instructions to send no mail. The Secretary has not been out of his bedroom since the musical festival last week, and it is doubtful if he has been out of his bed. The Secretary's health has been bad for some time and he is now a very sick man. Indeed, he has been in no condition to work during several months past. Those who have kept close watch of him in Washington have remarked that, since the beginning of the year, he was absent from the department more days than he attended there and when publican Portugal the Spanish Premier would interfere and assist the Portuguese monarchy. LONDON, May 14.—At 11 o'clock last night, off Europia Point, Gibraltar, near the spots where, on March 16 last, the flated steamer Utopia sank, the British steamship Buccaneer, bound from the Mediterranean for an English port, colleded with the Italian steamship Sturia, Capt. Valis, bound from various Mediteranean ports for New York. The Sturia had on boarda large number of emigrants for the United States. A panic ensued, but the officers finally succeeded in restoring order. Investigation showed that the bows of the Sturia had been stove and that the bows of the Sturia had been stove and that the barboard side of the Buccaneer had been badly damaged. No one was injured. Both steamers will remain until they can be repaired. The 550 emigrant passengers of the Sturia will be sent to their destination on another steamer.

Yardmaster Frank McInerny, whose discharge the switchmen demanded, and enforced by a tie-up during General Manager Whitman's illness six weeks ago, was reinstated this morning and took charge of the new men.

The company say that McInerny was never really discharged. His name has never been taken off the pay-rolls of the company, but his position has remained vacant, as he has remained away from his work pending the trouble starting on his account. ILLINOIS MINERS' STATEMENT OF TERMS.

STREATOR, Ill., May 14.—For two days past a convention representing the Illinois coal miners has been in session in this city. Every coal mining point from Springfield north was represented. After two days' deliberation, the convention finally issued a statement of terms in a lengthy series of resolutions. In substance, the resolutions said that last year's prices will be accepted. An effort will be made to have a clause inserted in all contracts giving the men the benefit of all legislation favorable to their interests.

In districts where two prices previously prevailed the price from May 11 to Sept. 1, 1891, shall be summer prices. From Sept. 1 1891, to March 1, 1892, where prices shall prevail. From March 1 to April 20, 1892, summer prices shall be paid. No place shall resume work at less than last year's prices, and if necessary local strikes will be inaugurated to enforce this. Each sub-district will endeavor to bring about a nine-hour day. The State officers of the association were appointed as a committee to confer with the Governor and State legislators with regard to pending labor legislation.

ADSTIN, Pa., May 14.—On the streets of this little city may be seen many men whose hands and faces are bandaged and whose singed hair and other marks of ill usage proclaim them survivors of the battle against the forest fires. Others who are being cared for at the boarding houses and their homes, are not able to be out and some of them never will be. No other subject is talked of but the terrible fire. Survivors of the ill-fated train which was burned regard their escape as something of a miracle. grip:

"Have you noticed that only those persons who were aged and feeble or debilitated die of the Grip! The Grip itself is not so serious or dangerous, but it is the tarpibly weakened condition that it leaves one in and the fearful after effects which it brings. The people whe die do not have vitality enough to recever; they do not possess rigor enough to throw off the after effects. Such people, in fact all people, should have help in some sensible way to throw off the depressing, the abellitating, the almost suicidal feelings which the Grip always causes. Nothing will do this, asthing will help nature except some purestimulant and there is nothing in the way of stimulants equal to pure whisky."

No medicinal stimulant ever has produced the results, ever has received the indorsements or ever has been so popular as Dutity's Pure Mali Whisky. The reason is accordingly simple. It is because it has gently, healthily and completely assisted Nature, toned it up, enabled it to resist the outside influences which tended to disease and so assist seward the attractive path which leads to health. The after effects of the Grip are the werest features of it. They must be counteracted if strength and health are to be regained. They can be overcome in but one certain way an that is by the use of the sensible, efficient and highly indorsed attimulant above mentioned. ssip Concerning the Coming Election of Officers—The Local Delegation Not So Hopeful of Securing the Permane Headquarters-The Offer of Indianapo

The Order of Ballway Conductors almost in a body visited the Anheuser-Busch Brewery this morning upon the special invitation of Adelphus Busch, the president, going on the sixth street electric line. It was a gay, laughing throng over which the local reception committee presided, and the crowded cars with their jolly occupants attracted much attention from the residents along the way they passed. It was a joyous, though not bolsterous trip, and the conductors did not collect or pay fare. They were the guests of collect or pay fare. They were the guests of St. Louis Division, No. 3, and everything had been arranged.

At 9 o'clock sharp the first one of the eight cars pulled out, followed rapidly by the others as soon as they were filed. Several of the grand officers were in attendance and accompanied the throng to the great brewery. At the brewery employes of the company took charge of the visitors, and for every ten there was a well-posted man to explain the workings of this or that. The crowds passed this way and that, being so managed by a prearranged scheme that no one crowd came into contact with others. The bottling department, with the peculiar machinery which does the work of filling and corking the beer bottles for shipment, attracted most attention. The ladies in the company were delighted with the workings of this department, and delayed therein for some time. The malt house and other portions of the brewery were thoroughly inspected, and the visitors began returning about 11 o'clock, much pleased with their visit.

ANXIOUS FOR THE BALL TO-NIGHT.

The laddes with the delegates are in a fever of delight over the ball and banquet which prominent railroad men have been sent invitations, but their answers have not yet been received.

The details of this, the leading social affair of the convention, have been carefully planned, and the local reception committee promise those who attend a most delightful time. Owing to the large number of delegates in attendance it has been absolutely necessary to be rather sparing in giving out tickets, as it is very desirable that a crush be avoided. To DELAY LOCATING THE HEADQUARTERS.
The local delegation are not so hopeful of winning the headquarters as they were yesterday, but they say that Indianapolis cannot command any 200 votes for removal to that place. From talk this morning an attempt will be made to have a committee of investigation appointed with instructions to report at the next convention of the order, and that St. Louis is favorable to this move there is little doubt. While Indianapolis has sent in the most favorable offer thus far made public it is hoped that definite action can be delayed.

sent in the most favorable offer thus far made public it is hoped that definite action can be delayed.

The great object in securing the mationa headquarters is that the annual convention will assemble in the fortunate city every year. As yet the princely offer made by Inclanapolis goes unchallenged, and the annual convention will assemble in the fortunate city every year. As yet the princely offer made by Inclanapolis goes unchallenged, and the annual comment of its proportions has somewhat discouraged the St. Louis boys, who have hoped to make the fight a winning one. But they claim that they are not yet discouraged, and propose to go bravely on until the matter is definitely settled. Probably, but not at all certain, the matter will come up in some shape this afternoon, but just what action will be taken can only be surmised.

TALK OF TRETERDAY'S BUSINESS.

One of the principal topics of conversation among the delegates in the rotunds of the Laclede this morning was in regard to the action taken in regard to making application for admission into the Federated Council of Railway Employes, the vote being reported to have been almost unanimous. Grand Chief Clark favored amalgamation, as he did in his speech at Exposition Hall last Tuesday. There were many expressions of dissatisfaction with an amaignmation with the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors to be heard yesterday, but when it was pointed out to the malcontents that that organization had only one delegate in council, and the benefits of a confederation were pointed out, the vote stood 20 to 7. From the expressions in opposition to such a scheme were mild it was thought best to be satisfied with winning the delegates over so solidity in favor of applying for admission to the Federated Council. Broke His Collar Bone.

Robert Thompson, in the employ of the St.
Louis Cable & Western Enfiroad Co., had his collar-bone broken to-day in a peculiar manner. About 5:15 o'clock this morning Thompson was at work in one of the man-holes at Vandeventer avenue and Morgan street engaged in straightening the cable with an fron hook. Suddenly the rope started with a ferk. The hook was caught in the wire strands and Thompson was thrown violently forward, sustaining a fracture of the right collar bone. The injured man was sent to his home at 2027 Morgan street. Thompson is a single man 22 years old.

storm, rain or hail, it has been just the same. In fact one of the most satisfactory sales this spring was made in a pouring rain where the auctioneer and the people stood shoe mouth deep in mud and water. On these and similar occasions where the red flag has waved single-lot purchases have been the rule, the sale of large plots in one parcel being the exception. This indicates a wide-spread demand for building sites. It is not a speculative demand, prompted by the expectancy and hope of selling again at a profit to some other speculator. It is a demand created and stimulated by the increasing population of the city, which, according to the new directory, contains over 80,000 more people now than it did a year ago. These people want homes. Such places are scarce in St. Louis. According to the Building Commissioner's last annual report he issued nearly 4,000 building permits for the year 1890. From two to half a dozen or more houses were erected under many of these permits. It would be a very low average to say that two houses were built under each permit granted. That Broadway, Washington Av. and St. Charles St. long ago. Rose Hill and Bartmer place with their new homes and churches are just west of Mt. Gamble. Clemens Place and Chamberlain Park, two elegant and highly improved sub-divisions, are south and east of the plot. where good society and schools are already established under restrictive provisions prohibiting nuisances in that territory for all time to come. Mt. Gamble has a charming altitude, its lowest plain being high above many sievated places in the city. Broad avenues divide its blocks, north, south, east and west at right angles. Page avenue, the route of the Lindell electric road, runs through the property. Goodfellow avenue is its western and Easton its northern boundary. In addition to the Lindell line Mt. Gamble may also be reached by the Citizens' cable road along Easton avenue and by the St. Louis & suburban route. Notwithstanding these advantages there is a general impression that the lots are going to be sold at very low prices, and it is that anticipation that is creating so much interest in the auction which is to commence upon the premises at 10 o'clock next Saturday forencon under the direction of the Hammett-Anderson-Wade Real Estate Co.

A GROWING SUBURB.

Tuxedo Park, one of the very attractive new suburban residence places under the management of McNair & Farish, has been improved a great deal since last season. There are a number of cosy homes there, more than enough to establish it as a very desirable locality to live in.

L. A. Moffett & Co. Will on Saturday next, commencing at 3-20 o'clock, on the premises, offer at public auction the large, double, stone-front residence occupying likasis feet of ground at No. 7:10 Washington avenue. There are twelve full rooms in the house and a fine stable on the rear end of the lot.

A RAVING MANIAC. Clothier Levy Made a Lunatic by Failure of His House.

New York, May 14.—The financial failure of the firm of which he is a member has made Augustus H. Levy a raving maniac, and he is now under guard at his home, No. 160 Seventy-sixth street. His brother Moses and his uncle Julius were his partners. The firm of uncle Julius were his partners. The firm of Leyy Bros. & Co., was one of the largest engaged in the manufacturing of men's and boys' clothing. The occupied the stores No. 610, 612 and 614 Broadway, and were regarded as substantial to a degree until about six weeks ago when they became slow on payments. The firm had falled in 1883, when samuel Levy, a brother of Augustus and Moses, was a member, and then some of the creditors were settled with in full and some received only 50 cents on the dollar. Six months ago Samuel Levy went to Europe and since then the firm in this city had advanced him a sum of money, said to be $100,000, and that, it is said, has crippled the concern.

The troubles of the firm of Levy Bros. & Co. may result in some peculiar developments. When the firm falled in 1881 Moses Levy was the head of the firm. Since then

St. Charles St. statement showed a surplus above all claims of $000,000, but that an investigation within the past three days shows that the liabilities exceed the assets by more than $850,000, making a deficit in six months of $650,000.

THE ADAMS CO.'S LAWYERS.

The staff of legal advisers who will appear for the Adams Co. is rather an imposing one, and indicates the importance of the litigation about to begin. It comprises the leading patent firm of Fowler & Fowler of Washington, D. C., and St. Louis; Marcelius Bailey of Washington, and Judge Upton Young and Mr. Given Campbell of St. Louis. In adoition to these gentlemen, however, there will be other counsel employed in various capacities by the company, and the Adams patent infringement suits promise to be a lattle of lawyers fully as notable in numbers and standing as the Bell telephone patents. The counsel named have already had frequent meetings for conference, and are thoroughly equipped for their assault upon the millionaire electric companies, against whose patent rights the Adams makes a deadly attack. The papers to be filed within the next thirty days are already drawn up in full and, it is said, the only preliminary step now to be taken is that of filling in the blanks necessary to name the defendants, and to specify the circuit in which the suit is to be brought.

sytems. His two applications for patents were filled in the patent office at Washington in 1883, and the patent papers issued upon them antedate by nearly two years those of any of the great electric railway systems now in operation. The practicable mounting of the motor upon the car-axie was the one discovery that made electric motive power for street railways possible. Dr. Adams claims that his patent covers that principle so thoroughly that it cannot be evaded by any other device toward the same end, and that accordingly he has a just claim for infringement of patent against all the street railway electric systems now in operation. There is, necessarily, a question of millions of dollars in royalties and damages involved in the panding mit.

Some models to the Exhibition in evidence during the progress of the suit. It is apparent that the trial of the first case is going to furnish an object leason in electric railway devices that will at least be of decided interest to electricians and street-railway people. But the great fight will be fought over just one spot of an electric motor car—that where the motor is a tunched to the axle—and illustrative of this there will be submitted before the Court one special model that is destined to become famous. It has just been finished under the supervision of Dr. Weilington Adams, and is called a "combination model." Its originator believes that this little miniature model will in its workings be one of the strongest arguments advanced for the Adams patents. It shows in the simplest are

The insurgents had not gained a single hattle of any consequence, he said, since the rebellion was begun. The only territory controlled by the insurgents was that of Iquique, Antofagasta and two other places. The people there were in sympathy with the insurgents. The insurgents have no foothold in Chill proper. "The insurgents," he added, "can get no volunteers. They are fighting disciplined soldiers with a disorganized mob. They are mainly supported by Millionaire Edward English in Valparaise and Col. North, the nitrate king. The insurgents get coal and cattle from tramp coast steamers. I do not believe the rebellion will last sixty days longer. The Government has 40,000 soldiers in the field, well equipped and with abandant supplies. The insurgents have about 8,000. These are not well drilled or organized, are poorly equipped and suffering from lack of the necessaries of life."

ADDRESS AT HANNIBAL.

SPRINGPIRLD, Ill., May 14.—As the first rays of a bright spring sun shone on the seven hills of Hannibal, Mo., the presidential special arrived at that city in the midst of noisy blowing of whistles, the shouts of thousands quelling the music of the bands. The President addressed the multitude as tollows.

My Fellow Citizens:—I have only time to assure you that I appreciate very highly this evidence of your respect. We have extended our journey to the Pacific Coast, we have creesed the Sandy plain where for days together the eye saw little to re-fresh it, where the green of the bine grass that is restful to the eye was wanting, and yet again and again at some lenesome station in the desert a few children from a school and some of the enterprising people who had pushed out there to make new homes, assembled with this old beanner in their hands and gave us a hearty American welcome. I am glad to return to this central body of States in which I was raised; glad to be again in the land of the Beckeye, the beech and the maple. To these dear children I want to say one world of thanks. They have done for us much on this journey to make it piesaant; their bright hass have cheered as, I love to see them. The care the States are taking for their education, is wisely bestowed, God bless them all; open to their feets pleasant ways and qualify them better than we have been in our generation, to uphold and perpetuate these magnificent civil isolitations. At the Illinois Capital.

Thousands of visitors from neighboring towns helped people of Springfield to welcome the President to the Flowery City this morning. Perfect weather and plenty of enthusiasm made the short visit of the distinguished guest a pleasant one, and excellent arrangements caused the reception to take place without a hitch.

At Springfield Junction, a short distance from the city, Gov. Pifer, Senator Cullom and Senator Palmer. Congressman Springer, Mayor Lawrence and other prominent persons met the President at 2:150 clock. Notice that the President had arrived at the station was given to the crowds on the streets by the presidential salute fired by the State troups.

Carriages in waiting were placed in the center of a procession composed of Sational Guard organizations, Grand Army posts, Sons of Veterans and secret societies and the President was escorted through the principal streets to the Lincoln monument, the organizations taking part in the procession proceeding part of the way in electric cars in order to let the carriages make better time. A temporary stand at the monument accommodated the presidential party and their hosts during the exercises. Mayor Lawrence presided. Gov. Fifer delivered an address of welcome, to which the President made brief answer, which was received with enthusiasm by several thousand people packed about the stand. This concluded the exercises and the visitors were driven rapidly under the eccord mounted sides to the State House. Another great crowd surrounded a platform in the front of the Capitol building. A few minutes were spent here, the President maling a few remarks to the assembliage.

At 10.22 the train moved out for the President's mative State.

CITY NEWS.

Dr. E. C. Chase, Corner of 9th and Olive streets. Set of teeth,$

PRIVATE matters skillfully treated and medi-tines furnished. Dr. Dinsbeer, 814 Pine st. A NEW CARRIAGE FACTORY.

St. Louis.

Negotiations are now in progress which will probably result in the establishment of an-other large carriage factory in St. Louis. Yesterday a number of gentlemen, prin-cipally from Cincinnati and its vicincipally from Cincinnati and its vicinity, arrived in the city and held a conference with some local capitalists in reference to the matter. Some of the Ohlo men are interested in earriage building in Cincinnati, but they now believe that better advantages can be gained by extending their business in this city. As yet the scheme is in an embryotic condition, the details have not been arranged and those interested decline to discuss the matter further than to say there is no doubt that a large factory will be erected in this city, most of the capital for which will come from abroad. The practical monopoly of the trade in agricultural implements in the Southwest which St. Louis has long enjoyed has had a most highly stimulating influence on the carriage and vehicle business. The new factory will not confine business. The new factory will not confine itself to the manufacture of carriages and buggies, but will place on the market vehicles of all kinds.

Abolished the Office of Secretary.

At the meeting of the Trades and Labor Union last night it was resolved to abolish the position of secretary, which is held by Charles McMahon. The reason of the change is, that the rent of the two halls at labor headquarters, 418 South Fourth street, which was depended on to pay the Secretary's salary of $50 a month, does not not sufficient for the purpose. The Treasurer's report showed an indebtedness of $220, with no means of paying it with the present income. The local union of painters were denounced at the meeting for their action in working while the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators were on a strike.

On the corner of Main and Locust streets, No. 325 North Math, is located one of St. Louis' most enterprising business bouses, the St. Bernard Dollar Store Co.

Mr. J. C. Monroe, of this concern, is a decidedly pleasant gentleman, and a pushing business man. Mr. Monroe resides at No. 821 Chestnut street.

In a recent interdew with him the writer was a listener, during the conversation, to an interesting story of a very remarkable experience. In brief his relation was as follows:

no matter how little, my stomach would swell up and cause me berrible discress.

"What has been the result of this last trial?"

"Drs. Copeland and Thompson have accomplished a wonderful result. I feel like a new man. My symptoms all gradually disappeared, until to-day I feel well and strong."

CARPENTERS GO TO WORK.

The carpenters held a meeting at Central Turner Hall to-day. Twenty-five men were reported having secured work since yesterday. Two more bosses gave in, one employing fourteen men and the other three. The other eight men secured work among the bosses who were already paying 40 cents an hour. Seven applications for membership in the union were made and several non-union men were brought in from off jobs. The strike, the men say, will last but a few days longer. A committee was sent to a building on Easton avenue, west of Grand, where ten more non-union men were at work who had signified their intention of joining the union.

The stairbuilders held a meeting at Central Turner Hall to-day. It was reported that all but two bosses had given in and that these employed but five men between them. The tin, sheet iron and cornice workers are still ure the productions of Wagner's operas by the American Opera Oo. and looked for stage pictures equally as artistic in the Emma Juch performances, as they were promised, but were disappointed.

While the artists were singing their score, however, the shortcomings of the stage manager were forgotten and the opera vocally was all if not more than anticipated.

Miss Emma Juch, as Elsa, gave a delightful interpretation of her part, portraying the anxious love of the young herothe, the nagovernable curiosity of woman to learn who her lover and husband was and her grief on realizing the result of the revelation. She sang the score admirably and gave fair effect to the dramatic force in the character required. Payne Clark as Lohengrin sang his part acceptably. His voice, a soft mellow tenor, is not strong, but is pleasing. He does not act and makes little attempt to express the soutment of his lines hy anj action. Franz Vetta as Henry I, sang a part which tested all his powers, and his efforts to reach some of the notes of his score were apparent. It was the severest task he will be called upon to do this week. Otto Rathjons, as Frederick Teiramund, the dramatic fagure of the opera, mastered his difficult role. Few bartiones could give greater dramatic force to the part than he did. He filled it with fire and action.

READ WHAT A FEW OF OUR FRIENDS SAY ON THIS POINT:

Simmons Hardware Co.

3737 LINDELL AV., April 11, 1891.

GENTLEMEN-I take pleasure in recommending the "Success" Gas Stove to all housekeepers. We use in our kitchen one of your "Success" Gas Stoves, and in point of general efficiency as a cooker it is unsurpassed by any coal or wood stove, while in point of cleanliness and convenience there is no comparison. As for economy, we find after a year's use that the difference in cost of gas and coal as fuel is scarcely perceptible. All our cooking, both in winter and summer, has been done on the "Success," and our cook, who for years had used a coal stove, found no difficulty in using the gas stove. It is a boon to housekeepers, as it removes much of the friction in the management of kitchen affairs, and in every way merits its name, "Success."

GENTLEMEN-I understand you have the agency for the "Success" Gas Range. It may do you some good to have the verdict of one who has this stove in practical operation. Last spring my wife and I investigated gas stoves, and, after examining every good one on the market, bought a "Success." It is a success in every particularclean, economical, a quick and perfect cooker.

We bought if for summer use, but cannot spare it at any season, and it now occupies a prominent and permanent place in my household. My wife says she can spare her coal range, but that money can not buy her "Success" Gas Stove.

Simmons Hardware Co.: GENTLEMEN-I have had in use in my house for about one year a "Success" Gas Stove, and can say that for convenience and general satisfaction I think it correctly named. I can cheerfully recommend the "Success" Gas Stove to anyone desiring to lighten the work incidental to that part of housekeeping and for general good results. Yours very truly, GENTLEMEN—I am very much pleased with my Gas Stove, the "Success," and you can use my name as a testimonial. Respectfully yours, 21 Vandeventer place.

was smashed and all the cab windows were broken but fortunately the engine was not materially injured. The passengers in the cars were thrown about and shaken up terribly and there was a scraping and grating sound, as though the cars had left the track. Engineer Elliott grabbed the throttle and stopped his engine by the time it had gone the length of the two cars which had been dragged across a gap in the track from which four feet of rail had been blown by the dynamite. Examination proved that the windows of the cars had been shattered and someother less serious damage done. Beyond a severe shaking up no injury had been sustained by the passengers. Engineer Elliott was so severely shocked by the force of the explosion that he was deaf for ten hours. After a short delay the local which had been dragged safely over the gap in the track went on its way. The Facific express, arriving soon after, was delayed a considerable time. It is hinted that the reason that the express did not go on time was because the rule grant of the sum of the sum of the passengers.

TREASUREE'S REPORT.

Rev. James M. Freeman, Treasurer, made his report on the financial condition of the order. The report shows that the League is still in debt to the extent of $1,290.74, which is in a fair way to being paid within a few weeks. The total amounts contributed by the States footed up to the sum of $1,244.73, charter fees for new chapters amounted to $1,265.24, making the total $2,439.97. The total expenditures of the Treasury were $3,70.21.

The contributions by States were recorded in the Treasurer's report as follows: New York 13 these were total to the states of the treasure of t and Visitors—General Gossip.

The Juch Opera Festival is the leading feature of the week, both in and out of society, for there are many sincere music lovers, who enjoy it regardless of how Wagnerian music is appreciated by those in the swim. The houses thus far have been full and very brilliant, Lohengrin drawing out a very fashlonable audience, many of the ladies in the dress circle in full dress, while full dress was the rule in the boxes, one of which was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. McDonough and party, the lady, formerly Miss Jessie Tutt, one of our most popular belies a few years ago, who married while abroad a wealthy Scotchman. The wedding, it will be remembered, was celebrated with great celat in London. This is the first visit Mr. and Mrs. McDonough have made to her native city since her marriage. For the past year they have resided from Menio Park.

Brooklyn Handicap.

THE PROBABLE WINNER OF THE RICH

terday, it will not be a contest of inferior horses, but will be a race between the very cream of the American turf. There is scarcely a horse among the twenty-five probable starters which could not give the Kentucky Derby winner of yesterday weight for age and a had beating. Of course the favorite for the race is Dave Pulsifer's great horse, Tenny, the recognized king of the turf, and his chances certainly look more rosy than those of any of the others. Tenny should win, but may not, as he has an extraordinary field to meet and as he concedes them all more or less weight, he will have to be at his very best to win. Next to him in popular favor comes Phil Dwyer's big chestnut horse Prince Royal. He will hardly land the prize, however, despite the reports of his phenomenal trials. If Tenny Goes not win, the prize will in all likelihood fall to Billy Lakeland's Tea Tray, Hough Bros.' Burlington or Capt. Brown's Senorita. There is one great drawback to the chances of the first-named and that is that Hamilton will not be allowed to ride him and at this late date Lakeland can scarcely procure a first-class jockey. There is also a report that Burlington is not quite ready for a race. If this is true his chances are of course worthless, but if fit the black colt will be in the hunt, and in it strong. Capt. Brown's Senorita is said to be in the very pink of condition, and as she is as speedy as the wind her chances to win are excellent.

Johnny Campbell has Castaway II., Cassins and Once Again entered, but will scarcely succeed in repeating his feat of last year when he landed the prize and surprised the talent. Judge Morrow is said to be doing great trials and to be in fine form, but he is scarcely good enough to win. Teuton will not start and Riley is out-classed, notwithstanding the prominence he has been given in connection with the race. Demuth is a strong tip, but will never do and Uncle Bob for whom so much is claimed and who is doing so well in his trials, will not be in it. Neither will Terra Cotta. He has bee enough to win.

THE FINAL TRIALS.

New YORK, May 14.—There was an enormous crowd at the Gravesend track at dawn years are to catch the final trials which it was known would be given the Brooklyn handicap candidates. The trainers were very backward about showing the form of their horses before such a throng. Finally Cousin Jeems appeared. He worked the handicap course, one mile and a quarter, in 2:14, leaving a rather unfavorable impression.

very backward about showing the form of their horse before such a throng. Finally Cousin Jeems appeared. He worked the handicap course, one mile and a quarter in 2:14, leaving a rather unfavorable impression. Judge Morrow and Riley worked the direct appearing to work easier. Castaway II., Once Again, a 5-year-old brother to Ambulance, and Cassius, worked a mile and a quarter in 2:13, finally not be order named. They are Johnny Campbell's candidates. Prince Royal was only worked a mile and one-eighth, and Garrison, who had the mount, held him in. The time of the big chestnut was 1:39. Eon, who accompanied him, covered the full distance, his time being 2:134, the was eased up, however, consolid a mile and a quarter in 2:13, but pulled up a trifle lame. Noile filly, a 3-year-old consider and the former cran away round the first place in the distance in 2:13 and would have beaten that considerably if he had not been held back for Terra Cotta, who appears to have outlived the grant of the post of the post of the course in 2:13, and would have beaten that considerably if he had not been held back for Terra Cotta, who appears to have outlived the grant of the post and the former cran away the considerably if he had not been held back for Terra Cotta, who appears to have outlived the post of the post about 6 o'clock to-morrow.

Nobody could tell how fast Tea Tray worked at Brighton Beach. Billy Lakeland is sorely worried at his failure to get Hamilton to ride his champion. He had wanted the services of that rider and was chargined to learn that the boy will be compelled to stand down if Ranquet does not start. The first pers will not be asked to run any more until they go to the post about 4 o'clock to morrow.

THE KENTUCKI DERST.

The Line for the mile and a half would be a disgrace to a selling plater. As was stated in this paper, Balgowan was not the horse to beat. Kingman and when Harry Ray and Georgetown, the only two colts which had any chance to win from the son of Glengarry, were scratched, there was nothing left in the race to make the Tavorite run, and his victory was an easy one, as Raigowan was completely ridden out when it came to making a finish. The question of whether Kingman is good for a mile and a half was loft upsettled, for any horse can waik as mile and a half and, be wain not called upon to run the distance. The chances are, however, that be cannot cover the course in any kind of fast time, as he had to be whipped at the fast paper a few days ago, all the Kentucky Derby candidates were at best but a lot of second and third rate colts. The first mile of yesterday's race was covered in the disgracefully slow time of 201, and the last half in .114, which was a pretty good horse his colors will be dragged in the dest, for as was stated in this paper a few days ago, all the Kentucky Derby candidates were at best but a lot of second and third rate colts. The first mile of yesterday's race was covered in the disgracefully slow time of 201, and the last fin .114, and the mile and a malf in .25%, the course in a second slower than the record for the disance-2-2 hald by Fireaust R is also Ta second slower than the slowest provious tim for the Derby—2:45, made by Riley last year on a track knee deep in mind.

THE DEEN'S WINNER.

Kingman, who won the Kentucky Derby yesterday, is by lmp. Glengarry, out of Patricia by Vauxhall, and is owned by Kinsea Stone of Georgetown, Ry., who purchased him as a yearing for $20. The colt stands 15% bands high and is a bay with a small star in the forehead and his right hand foot is white to the fetlock. He was trained by Dudley Allen, who also trained Vagrant, winner of the second Kentucky Derby, run in 1876. Kingman has participated in eighteen races, receiving first money seven times, got second money four times and third money four times, being unplaced three times. Three of his seven wins were made this year. Kingman's first start was last year as a 2-year-old, when he finished second to Roseland in a purse race at the Lexington spring meeting. On the occasion of his next start at the opening day at Latonia he reversed the tables on Roseland by beating him at five furiongs in 1:0%. Balgowan, Maj. Thornton and four others ran. Charges were made that Roseland was pulled, and his jockey, Fishburn, was ruled off. A few days later, however, Kingman conceded Roseland three pounds in weight and beat him and nine others in 1:0% over the same distance. Kingman's next start was at St. Louis, where he ran unplaced to Too Sweet in a purse and later finished third to Rose Howard in another purse event. At Washington Park, Chicago, he won a five-furlong purse in 1:00, carrying 118 pounds and defeating Burr Cooper, 118; Harry Ray, 111, and three others. Two days later he won a six-furlong event in 1:184, beating Donatello, Rose Howard and others. In his next start he ran second to Chimes. He finished third to Rinfax in the Friendly Stakes, and was beaten a neck by Balgowan for the Hyde Park Stakes. It is claimed that he was robbed of the decision in this last race, and his owner is now suing the Washington Park Association for the amount of the purse. From Chicago he was taken to Monmouth Park, where he ran unplaced in in the Derby at Latonia and the American Derby and Sheridan States at Chicago.

A DEER DAY AT LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 14.—The Seventeenth Kentucky Derby was run here yesterday, and as a horse race, was a sad disappointment. Of the seven horses who were expected in the morning to start, Georgetown, Vallera and Poet Scout were scratched, and Kingman, Balgowan and Hart Wallace were the only horses to got ot the post. Isaac Murphy, had the mount on Kingman, Overton was on Ralgowan, Kiley on Hart Wallace and R. Williams on High Tarriff. The horses were sent away on the first attempt, High Tarriff making the running with Balgowan at his saddle girths and Kingman and Hart Wallace well up. Hart Wallace joined the leaders on the back stretch and Murphy later began to move up with Kingman, but had him well in hand all the time. A furlong from home he was on even terms with Balgowan. Then Murphy gave the favorite his head and a slash of the whip and the colt drew away and won by a length, from Balgowan, who had been ridden and whipped for all there was in him. High Tarriff was third a length back of Balgowan and Hart Wallace was inst. three lengths further back. The time, 2:374, was the slowest in the history of the race. The slowest previous time was Elley last year—2:45—but it was made on a track knee deep in mud, and still beat Kingman's time 7½s., although the latter was made on a dry track.

Just before the games closed he made a second trial and succeeded in knocking down the amateur record—74, seconds—by completing the distance in 73-5 seconds. The only other record broken was the Princeton record in the mile walk, which was smashed by F. A. Borcherling, '30, who walked in 7m. 183-5s.

On Saturday, April 9, the Post-Dispatch published a statement from the Four Courts relating the difficulties of Louis Plandre and the complications resulting from his borrowing money from F. W. Peters at exception trates of interest. Plandre borrowed $40 and after paying $12.50 interest still owed $35 on the original loan. Seeing no means of escaping he applied to the Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for a warrant.

There are four Louis Plandres in St. Louis and two of them answer the description of this man. The man referred to is not Mr. Louis Plandre who was recently County Commissioner of St. Clair County and who moved from East St. Louis to No. 384 Ohio avenue, this city, a short time ago. This Mr. Plandre has been caused considerable annoyance by the coincidence and is very desirous of having it distinctly understood that he is not in financial difficulties.

ferred to have brought about the saving to every grocer of the annual tax of $10 on the sale of coal-oil-this means nearly $350,000 saved to the trade in this one item alone. Upwards of $50,000 has been collected for the members of one association by the establishment of a collection department. The associations have been largely instrumental in shortening the hours of labor. Through the efforts of the grocers' associations grocers have been enabled to obtain a profit on sugar. Fire insurance is effected in reliable companies, the horse insurance fund being a valuable feature. Legislation affecting the interests of the grocery trade is closely watched by a committee appointed for that purpose."

watched by a committee appointed for that purpose."

Mr. Glies Boland also made an address, which was listened to by the grocers with great attention. He made a clear exposition of the necessity of a union of the retail grocers as a matter of individual protection and convenience. If an organization were established grocery clerks could be registered and the records kept. This would be a great help to the dealers in securing competent employes. Legislation could also be more closely watched and hucksters prevented from selling unless they had paid a license. A Committee on Permanent Organization was appointed, composed of H. C. Grenner, Chairman, and Messrs. A. Borneau, Theo. Temple, Glies Boland and A. G. Wehrheim. The committee announced that it would be ready to make a report next Tuesday evening, and the meeting adjourned to meet at Enterpe Hall on the evening of Tuesday, May

MILLY, Tenn., May M.—A case which several prominent physicians assert has no parallel in the history of the profession came under the observation of the Post-Disparch correspondent to-day. Several months since a young boy of West Plains, Miss., while hunting met with a serious accident. The boy while climbing a fence carelessly let the gun go off, the shot mand to reduce the fever cold water was applied. This was the only remedy which to any extent eased the pain. The boy became so accustomed to the use of water that he

A BULLET FROM THE BRAIN.

NEW YORK, May 14.—At East District Hospital, where Wm. Cavanaugh, a would-be suicide, was admitted on Monday, Dr. Silas C. Blaisdell, chief of the surgical staff, made an examination of the pistof wound in the head and found that the builet, on striking the skull, had divided into two pieces. One of these had been defected, and had passed out through the scalp; the other had entered the brain.

From the arterial jets of blood that spurted from the interior wound it was made certain that the piece of builet penetrating the brain had cut through the middle meningeal artery. This left but one chance of saving the man's life, and that was through a surgical operation by which the builetcould be removed.

This operation is said to have been performed but once before in the history of surgery. A circular piece of the skull, one and one-half inches in diameter, was removed and the membrane cut away.

After some little exploring in this region with a probe, the builet was located. With a pair of forceps it was drawn out, the severed artery united and the membrane replaced.

George Schaefer, alias Crazy George, was convicted of murder in the first degree in the Criminal Court yesterday for the killing of Henry Grattan last September. Schaefer was considered of unsound mind in the vicinity of where he lived, 1106 Cass avenue, and Grattan's calling him Crazy George was the immediate cause which led to the killing. Schaefer's present condition gives every indication that he is insane.
